January 7 Open stage and feature-Gillian Hobbs
Live only Gillian is a folk-pop singer/songwriter from Vancouver, BC. After hanging up her guitar for a career in healthcare, she returned to songwriting during the pandemic, reminded of what a powerful tool music can be for healing and connection. A theme that runs through much of her music is that, no matter what you're feeling, you're not alone.
She rejoins the Vancouver scene after a decade-plus hiatus and a stint in Nashville learning from Grammy-nominated songwriters like Mary Gauthier, Bonnie J. Baker, Beth Nielsen Chapman and Gretchen Peters with new tunes that span the personal and the political.

Jan. 21 Theme Night: Building a Better World - Gram Partisans
Live and streaming The Gram Partisans are a Vancouver-based roots folk group whose music combines our collective respect for many diverse musical traditions with our beliefs in hope, integrity, justice and a long memory. We play mostly original songs that tell stories of courage, trust, imagination, and solidarity. We seek to challenge your views of what music rooted in social justice can sound and feel like. Follow us on Facebook and YouTube.
